Primary Day Rules For Liquor Places Announced by State

John F. O'Connell, chairman of the New York State Liquor Authority, 270 Broadway, New York 7, N. Y., announced today the prohibited hours for the sale of liquor, wine, and beer throughout the State of New York on Primary Day, Tuesday, Aug. 24, during the hours when the polls are open, 3 p. m. to 10 p. m. in New York city, elsewhere throughout the state, 12 noon to 9 p. m.

Section 105 (4) of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Law provides that "no premises licensed to sell liquor and/or wine for off-premises consumption shall be permitted to remain open on any day of a general or primary election during the hours when the polls are open."

Grocery stores and drug stores licensed to sell beer at retail for off-premises consumption are prohibited from selling beer while the polls are open in those counties where the local Alcoholic Beverage Control Board has restricted its sale on Primary Day. There are no restrictions in this respect as regards sales of beer for off-premises consumption by grocery stores and drug stores in New York city.

Lomakin Has Booked Passage Aboard Swedish-American Liner Next Saturday; Demand Is Denied to Choose Doctors

Awaiting Russians To Pick Lomakin Outbound Ticket

Soviets Have No Choice But May Accompany Action With Blast Against Stand

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP)—The State Department waited today for Russian officials to pick up the out-bound ticket it has ordered for Soviet Consul General Jacob Lomakin.

Faced with formal U. S. charges that Lomakin "abused" his official position by his role in the Kasenkina case, the Soviets have no choice but to remove him from his New York post.

But they may accompany the action with a fresh blast against the American stand in the refugee teacher dispute.

Speculation in official quarters also takes into consideration two other possible Russian moves:

1. The Soviets may take some retaliatory measure—as they usually do in such instances—by accusing an American official in the Soviet Union of improper conduct and ordering him out of that country.
2. They may reject the State Department's request for two letters Mrs. Oksana S. Kasenkina wrote before her spectacular leap from the Soviet consulate in New York. The letters reportedly explain her decision to remain in this country and possibly may throw further light on her treatment at Lomakin's hands.

2 German Police Resisting Reds Stabbed, Beaten

American Authorities Try to Head Off Violent Clash Between Two Sectors

Berlin, Aug. 21 (AP)—Russian soldiers stabbed and beat two German policemen from the American sector of Berlin today when the Germans resisted abduction into the Soviet zone, western sector police announced.

While American authorities acted to head off a possible violent clash between the police forces of the eastern and western sectors, still another kidnapping incident was attributed to the Russians.

British authorities announced that armed Russians abducted two German policemen from their sector. They demanded the return of the men.

Third Abduction

The latest abduction was the third carried out by the Russians in two days. American officials have demanded formally the release of three German policemen from their sector who were seized by the Russians during a black market raid yesterday on the American-Russian sector border. The Americans said the Russians made no reply.

July Car Mishaps Result in Injury To Nine Persons

Nine persons were injured in six automobile accidents in this city during the month of July, according to Police Chief Raymond Van Buren's monthly report submitted to the police commissioners.

There were no traffic fatalities within the city limits, and none of those persons injured were seriously hurt, according to the report.

Of the total injured, three were pedestrians and six were passengers in motor vehicles.

Chief Van Buren also reported that 303 persons were arrested in this city during July on charges ranging from traffic violations to grand larceny, first degree. Of the total persons arrested, 98 were men and five were women.

Of the total arrests, 35 of the persons charged forfeited bail, 20 were committed to jail, 13 were fined, nine are awaiting grand jury action, eight were discharged, eight received suspended sentences, four cases are still pending in city court, three were placed on probation and three were dismissed when charges were withdrawn.

17 Die in B-29 Crash on Friday

Fatal Crash Takes Place Near Rapid City Base After Taking Off

Rapid City, S. D., Aug. 21 (AP)—Seventeen men died yesterday when a B-29 crashed and burned a few seconds after taking off from a 15th Air Force base near here.

At the Smoky Hill Air Force base, S. D., Lt. R. W. Bryant, public relations officer, identified four of the victims as First Lt. C. M. Thorp, First Lt. R. K. McClurg, Tech. Sgt. R. L. Mason and Staff Sgt. P. J. Cullin. Bryant said the four men and three others on the plane were members of the 2nd Bomb Group at Smoky Hill.

Wives of the four he named lived in S. D. Bryant said all seven were passengers on the plane.

A board of officers was to open an investigation today in an attempt to determine cause of the crash-up, first fatal crash since the strategic bomber base was reactivated in April, 1947.

Captain Thomas Siegler, base public relations officer, said the huge, four-engine bomber had just cleared the field when one of the left engines caught fire. The engine was stopped and the plane, short of crucial take-off power, banked to the left and nosed into a wheat field a short distance from the end of the runway.

Mrs. Lawrence Tietz in whose field the plane came down, said she saw an engine drop shortly before the ship plunged. A deafening roar followed, she said.

Officers and men of the base, occupied by the 28th Bomb Wing, worked into the night attempting to identify the burned bodies, many charred nearly beyond recognition.

Approximately 20 Upstate Craft Are Expected to Land; Public Invited to Inspect Planes

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP)—U. S. marshals waited for Mildred Elizabeth Gillars to land from a trans-Atlantic plane today to greet her first return home in 19 years with a treason warrant.

Miss Gillars—better known to G.I.s as "Axis Sally"—is being brought back from Frankfurt, Germany to face a Federal Grand Jury here on charges she betrayed her native land by wartime broadcasts over radio Berlin.

The 48-year-old native of Portland, Me., was located two years ago by American authorities in Berlin, living a precarious existence in the ruined cellars of the bombed-out German capital.

She was arrested, but subsequently released to the American Occupation Zone on condition that she report every two weeks to U. S. Army authorities.

The Justice Department, pointing out that a prosecution for treason requires exact evidence and at least two witnesses "to the same overt act," said that the inquiry into Miss Gillars' radio activities had presented "a prodigious task."

Chicopee, Mass., Aug. 21 (AP)—The mother of eight-year-old Diane Parent, Chicopee's "Sleeping Beauty," says she believes the child was cured by a miracle.

She said she and her husband along with Diane's schoolmates prayed for the child's recovery shortly before she came out of her slumber.

London, Aug. 21 (AP)—Princess Margaret, officially of age, abandons her role of little sister today.

It is her eighteenth birthday and a solemn occasion for the merry princess whose wit and naturalness have endeared her to the entire commonwealth.

All her life, Princess Margaret has been overshadowed by her older sister Elizabeth, the heiress presumptive to the throne of Britain. But now Elizabeth, expecting her first child in the fall, has virtually discontinued public appearances, and it falls to Margaret to shoulder some of the duties of state.

No Comment on Action

Lomakin, accused by the U. S. of misrepresenting the facts in the Kasenkina case, had refused to comment on the U. S. demand to the Soviet embassy in Washington that he be recalled to Russia.

Questioned yesterday as he was leaving the consulate building—where he had apparently spent the night after learning of the U. S. note—Lomakin told newsmen:

"You are wasting your time, gentlemen. I have nothing to say."

The New York Herald Tribune said that Lomakin has booked passage to sail from New York next Saturday on the Swedish-American liner, Stockholm.

The paper said it had not learned whether Lomakin had booked his passage before or after the State Department charged he

Hang Pictures At Even Heights

Room's Appearance Will Be Improved if Job Is Done Properly

Pictures, if hung right, add warmth and much intimacy to a room. Even the most formal of rooms can stand a "lift" that comes with a decorative picture being properly hung. Here are a few principles or tricks from House Beautiful that help the eye balance a picture:

1. Never hang pictures at uneven heights, like steps, except on a stairway. Try to group them in relation to the piece of furniture beneath. Height is determined in proportion to the room and the things in it.

2. Any collection of pictures similar in size and character looks best grouped closely over an important piece of furniture. Let intervening wall spaces be small and unimportant.

3. Don't let the picture extend beyond the edges of focal object below it.

4. Be careful in hanging a picture over a lamp not to let it be partially obscured by the shade.

5. In placing pictures of varying sizes, keep the bases of the frames equidistant from the floor, instead of aligning frames at the top.

6. The proportion of the size of any picture to the wall on which it hangs is vital, and so is its shape. Over a large object, such as a sofa, try to use a horizontally shaped picture. This will diminish the area of bare wall and effect a comfortable sense of balance.

Simple Design of Small House Keeps Building Cost Down

Economics Achieved Through Low Cubic Content Without Sacrificing Living Space in Cape Cod Cottage

Simple design and a straight forward plan go a long way toward keeping down building costs. Both these factors help to make "The Marion," today's offering from the "Home of the Week" Plan Service, a very economical venture. Thanks to careful scheming, it has a cubic content of only 15,500 feet.

Viewing it from the exterior, one would hardly guess that this Cape Cod cottage contains four bedrooms, plus the usual living room, kitchen and dining space. There's a full-size basement, too, which may be finished up to suit owner's particular needs and whims. Best of all for the young couple with a limited building budget, the second floor with its two bedrooms and lavette may be left unfinished until a later date, the first floor affording complete accommodations.

Calls for Simple Treatment

Such a simple design as this calls for simplicity in decorative treatment. The walls may be finished with painted shingles or clapboards and the roof covered with asphalt shingles. White walls, roof and Colonial green trim is a favored color combination for such a cottage. Foundation planting calls for no elaborate outlay.

A stock Colonial door with glazed transoms, opens into a small entry hall with coat closet. The stairs to the second floor rise from this hall but are closed off by a door opposite the front entrance. At the right, an arch opens to the living room. This room, measuring 12-6-15, is flooded with light from the two windows on the front of the house and a triple window at the side. There is a fireplace, centered between the arch from the front entry and a door opening on an inner hall. The second inside wall of the room is unbroken except for a door to the dining space, allowing for the placement of large furniture.

Has Built-In China Closet

The dining space is sufficiently large to accommodate an apartment-size dining suite. In one corner of the dinette is a built-in china closet. Across from this is the door to the kitchen. Laid out in galley fashion, this room measures 8-3-8. A working counter with sink occupies one entire wall, the opposite wall being taken up with range, refrigerator, and a broom closet. A glazed door opens from the kitchen on a small covered porch at the side of the house.

The inner hall, reached from the living room, connects with the two first floor bedrooms and the bathroom. Stairs to the basement descend from this hall. The bathroom contains a linen closet and a full complement of fixtures including a recessed tub with overhead shower.

Each of the bedrooms on the first floor has cross lighting and ventilation and each contains a clothes closet. Floor measurements of the bedrooms are 10x12 and 8-6x11-6 respectively.

Second-Story Plan

The second-story plan includes two bedrooms, each 12x13-6 feet with clothes closets and storage drawers built under the eaves space. A small hall containing a linen closet connects both bedrooms. A lavette opens off the hall. A built-in shower may be included in the lavette plan, if the owners desire.

Insulation under the full roof expanse should definitely be provided for in a house of this type. Over-all dimensions of "The Marion" are 31x25 feet so a 50-foot lot will easily accommodate it. A location offering a front exposure facing from southwest to northwest is advised.

Plans Are Available

Complete plans and specifications for this house, "The Marion" the "Home of the Week," or any other design of this series, are available at moderate cost. To ascertain the exact cost of these documents, write the Home Building Editor, The Kingston Daily Freeman and enclose a self-addressed envelope bearing a three-cent stamp. At least one week should be allowed for a reply. (Released by the "Home of the Week" Plan Service)

Best Materials Should Be Used To Finish Floor

"Would shellac or varnish be the better preparation to use on an oak kitchen floor?" asks R. E. W. For years householders have been debating this shellac-vs.-varnish argument.

In finishing any floor, it is a mistake to use any but the highest quality materials. There is so much labor involved that the materials should have the greatest resistance to wear and scratching. Before any finish is applied, the bare wood floor should be clean and smooth, all fine dust being taken up by wiping with a clean cloth dampened with turpentine.

Varnish shellac, wax or a combination of these may be used where the natural color of the floor is to be retained. If varnish is chosen, it should be a floor varnish, which is harder and more resistant to wear than other varieties. Varnish should not be brushed crossways, nor should it be thick coats; coats should be as thin as will cover the wood. When the first coat is thoroughly hard, the second coat is applied. Three coats are advisable.

White or orange shellac is also satisfactory for floor finish and when pure and of high quality will stand hard wear.

Both varnished and shellacked floors can be waxed to advantage, for the wax will take the dirt and wear and protect the finish beneath.

Great Care Required When Using Varnish

Extreme care should be used in preparing and applying varnish. Never store varnish in a room where the temperature is usually low.

When you pour it from the can, pour in carefully so that no air bubbles will form.

Be sure that there is no dust present on the surface to be varnished and that a minimum of dust is in the room.

Use a first quality flat brush and dip it gently into the varnish so no air bubbles or froth may form. When the brush is not in use, preserve it by soaking in raw oil. Before using, however, work all oil possible from it and then clean it in turpentine and shake dry.

When applying the varnish lay it on without brushing it out too much.

If two cans are necessary, use a quick-drying, harder type for the first coat than you use for the latter.

Two coats of the same type are frequently used, however, with good results.

Spain Battles Illiteracy

Madrid, (AP)—One fourth of the population of Spain is illiterate but the percentage is dropping steadily each year, according to official published statistics. The most illiterate regions of Spain are the Basque and Navarre provinces, the report stated. The highest illiteracy rate is found in the Canary Islands where 63 per cent of the population is unable to read or write.

Windows Serve Decorative and Functional Use

Their Locations Should Be Chosen With Care by the Builder of Your Home

No longer are the windows of a home viewed only as functional units. Today they are called upon to serve important architectural and decorative uses as well.

In planning window locations, the home builder is urged by one authority on windows to keep these three points in mind: (1) Determine how a "picture window" or a corner window can be designed for the living room, the dining room, the kitchen or the bedroom to frame some pleasant exterior scene. (2) Which way will the house face. It may be important in determining what can be done with windows to utilize sunlight for more cheerful and interesting interiors. (3) In which direction do the prevailing winds blow? Direction may mean much in the interest of Summer coolness or Winter warmth, especially if the specifications do not include an air-conditioning unit.

Often architects have achieved interesting results by placing a prominent window to frame a tree in the manner of a "living picture." Its changing pattern from Spring to Fall and throughout the Winter makes for a scene that is always refreshing. Similarly pleasing effects are obtained if the surrounding landscape permits a view of a sweep of river, winding creek, or even a broad expanse of rolling land.

Older homes are often characterized by their lack of windows, but present owners need not surrender their desire for a bright and cheery view.

New windows may be installed wherever needed or wherever a good home is to be provided with new windows to make use of exterior landscape possibilities. It is generally recommended that solid, large panes be used instead of the many-paned types.

Pint-Size Kitchen May Be Handicap

Home builders are cautioned by Federal Housing Administration officials not to condense the kitchen so as to make it too small for use. A kitchen can be efficient even though it may not be as small as a Pullman-car kitchen.

Despite the fervor for "step-saving," a happy medium should be maintained between the Pullman kitchen and the old-fashioned kitchen.

The kitchen does double duty. It serves as a cooking centre, and at the same time it is a storage place for dishes, utensils, cleaning materials, and other household gadgets and equipment.

Sufficient space for storage is of vital importance in the planning of a kitchen for a small modern home.

Questions, Answers

Radiator Paint
Q. What paint should be used on radiators?

A. Ordinary house paints and enamels of any color may be used as a finishing coat for radiators. Radiators should not be painted while hot, and care should be taken that the paint has dried thoroughly before the heat is turned on.

Garage Apartment

Q. In order to help pay for the house I am planning, would it be feasible for me to have an apartment over the garage that could be rented?

A. Rental apartments over garages and similar arrangements rarely enhance the value of a property and then only temporarily. On the contrary, they usually cause it to decline in value when viewed over a long period of time.

Heating System

Q. Is hot water heat better than warm air heat?

A. The choice as to hot water or warm air must rest with the owner. Both systems do excellently when properly installed. Warm air, especially the gravity type, is cheaper than the other, and is thus particularly suitable for the inexpensive house.

Building Dry Wall

Q. Please tell me the best way to build a dry wall of flat stone.

A. Put down an ordinary concrete base, which does not have to go to the frost level. Put some reinforcing bars in this. Lay the stones on top of this without mortar.

Junior League Meets

On Horse Show Plans

A special meeting of the Junior League of Kingston was held Monday afternoon at the Twaalfskill Club.

Miss Cashin, Mrs. Roger Schwartz, Mrs. James Sneed and Mrs. Lauren Lasher were hostesses.

The meeting was called to discuss plans for the Woodstock Horse Show to be held Sunday, September 12. The league is helping with the show in order to raise funds for its work at the Kingston Recreation Center on lower Broadway and with Alexander Fuhrman's Boys Club.

Last winter the league conducted, under the supervision of Mrs. William J. McVey, a weekly girls club at the center as well as a weekly class in woodcarving for the children, a Christmas play and a party.

The league members are hoping to be able to do a great deal more at the center next winter.

It also was decided at the meeting to bring Peggy Briggs' marionettes to Kingston October 12 for the children of the city.

FAMILY SURPRISE

A reader says: "Our son who works in a city 300 miles away came home and announced quite casually that his engagement had just been announced. We are all a little hurt that he didn't give us any warning or even bring the girl home with him some week end so we could have met her, and see us, before the announcement. What do we do now? We have two grown daughters living at home as well as this son. Should they do anything?"

Of course, it may be that the news "became public" by surprise to him, and not by intention as the wording of his mother's letter suggests. Certainly it is not usual for the public announcement of an engagement to take the parents of either man or girl by surprise. However, the duty of this man's family is now exactly the same as it would have been had he told his news to them sooner.

His mother and sisters should each write the girl a letter of welcome and his mother should invite her to come with him for the first possible week end.

Wedding Rings on Right Hand

Dear Mrs. Post: Someone just told me that if a widow were her wedding ring on her right hand instead of continuing to wear it on her left, this would signify her unmarried state. I never had heard of this. When did it start?

Answer: During the war years a group of young war widows asked me whether I would consider the idea since it was better than their giving the impression they were married women out with other men or embarrassing strangers who made reference to husbands and learned there were none. They asked me to champion their cause of wearing their wedding ring on their right hand to indicate their status. And that is, so far as I know, when the custom began in this country.

Immediate Family

Dear Mrs. Post: Who is included in the designation "immediate family?"

Answer: Father, mother and their children.

Arranging the table for breakfast, lunch, dinner or supper is described fully in Mrs. Post's booklet, No. 504, "The Etiquette of Table Setting." It is obtainable by sending 10 cents (coin preferred) and a 3-cent stamp to her, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

Suit Over Tool Control

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—A group of tool manufacturing firms described as the "Big Six" are accused of violating the anti-trust laws in a suit filed by the Tool and Equipment Supply Company, Inc., of New York. The firm asks $2,100,000 damages. The complaint, filed yesterday in Federal Court, alleges the "Big Six" firms control the cutting tool industry in the United States and "completely control and dominate" an unidentified association. The tool company alleges it had been deprived of access to every available source of supply, prevented from doing business and from honoring commitments to its customers.

G. L. K. Smith Takes Credit For Investigation of Reds

St. Louis, Aug. 21 (AP)—Gerald L. K. Smith opened the two-day convention of his "Christian Nationalists" in an assembly room of Kiel Auditorium last night with an hour-long speech in which he claimed credit for instigating congressional investigations of Communists in government.

Smith promised his audience of 330 persons, most of them middle-aged or elderly, that a "prominent American citizen who prefers to have his identity with this program withheld until the hour of meeting" would be the chief speaker at tonight's session.

The convention will choose its first candidate for president of the United States today. Last June Smith said the person chosen "should be a man on the order of John E. Rankin of Mississippi."

During his address Smith attacked Jews, Negroes, the New Deal and persons of Jewish ancestry in high governmental positions.

He charged "labor racketeers" with refusing to permit assembly-line methods to function in the construction of low-priced homes and declared the government had spent "nearly $1,000,000,000 for tobacco, liquor and similar products" under the Marshall Plan.

The convention was called to order by Phil W. Davis, Jr., Tulsa, Okla., attorney. He introduced Don Lohbeck of St. Louis, who is serving as convention chairman.

CHIEFS HERE FOR TWO TONIGHT

Colonial Hurlers Ready for Final Crack at Miseraks

Rain washed out a doubleheader between the Colonials and the Port Chester Clippers last night in Westchester but the cancellation inspired no tears among the Colonials who were happy to depart from their jinx rounds.

Back home Manager Eddie Kobesky's team is ready for a threegame set with the second place Poughkeepsie Chiefs tonight at the municipal stadium.

The first game of a two-night publichouse is set for 7 p. m.

Pitchers Ready

Prospects of sweeping the series against the Bridge City rivals is good. Kobesky has a perfect pitching rotation with Danny Rourke, Larry Petty, Joe Kania and Emil Rourke. The new Cuban flinger, tonight's doubleheader will be followed by a single set Sunday at 8:30. Max Patkin, the popular clown-contortionist, will do his stuff Sunday at 8.

The return of Norman Jaeger, heavy hitting first baseman is expected momentarily. Jaeger has been under doctor's care for a mild attack of appendicitis but yesterday he was reported improved to such an extent that he might get into the week-end action against the Chiefs.

Outrom To Hurl

Billy "The Kid" Outrom, the fabulous left hander who has not had much success against the Colonials, may get another whirl in the current series.

A new outfield acquisition, Paul Dunlop, may report to the Colonials today. Dunlop, who has been in the minor leagues, has a long minor league record and appeared here earlier in the season with the House of David.

If Dunlop arrives today, Max Goldsmith will return to catching and Eddie Kobesky goes to first base.

220 Fans See Cardinals Tounce All Stars 28 to 0

Chicago, Aug. 21 (AP)—The Chicago Cardinals, steam-rolling to the most decisive victory in the year series, handed Frank Leahy's College All-Stars a stinging football lesson, 28-0, before 1,220 at Soldiers Field last night.

The All-Stars, who thought they had so much talent they could experiment with a T-formation and single wing attack against the Cardinals, were nearly swept out of the mammoth football stadium by the National Football League champs.

The slick, bruising Cardinals pummeled the All-Star defenses to shreds with explosive running and deadly passing of Coach Jimmy Conzelmann's version of the T.

Trippi Big Star

Charley Trippi, playing his fifth year in the All-Star spectacle, played four times with the college stars, showed the All-Stars how to log the ball.

Trippi, who scored the final cardinal touchdown on a 13-yard pass from Quarterback Ray Maul, carried the ball 14 times for 7 yards.

The best collegiate ball-carrying performance was by Notre Dame's Johnny Lujack, who went 14 yards in four tries.

Notre Dame's Johnny Lujack led a hand in the only All-Star punt. Lujack, off a lateral from Jerry Moss, fired a 44-yard pass Dan Edwards of Georgia in the third period, as the Cardinals marched 44 yards to the Cardinal line.

Floyd Simmons of Notre Dame was smothered by Cardinal tackles on a fourth down to end this drive.

'Yankee Stars' Selected

Members of the New York Yankee "Stars of Tomorrow" who meet the K.A.A. All Stars in the annual all-star junior baseball classic on Saturday, Sept. 4, at municipal stadium, were selected from the best players seen at four baseball schools conducted by the Yankee organization at four New Jersey sites of Newark, Philadelphia, Vineland and Lakewood.

Forty boys have been selected from over 600 candidates by Yankee scouts Lefty Gomez, George Selkirk, A. B. "Turk" Krum and Ernie Sabo.

Final selection of the 18 players on the "Stars of Tomorrow" took place Wednesday at Ruppert Stadium in Newark. The team already has transferred to Pittsburgh, N. Y., for a 10-day training period.

The "Stars of Tomorrow" open a four-game schedule in Pittsburgh, Pa., on Sept. 3, then come to Kingston on the 4th. Games are also scheduled in Glens Falls on Sept. 5 and in Albany on Sept. 6.

Yanks Take Opener

Southpaw Ed Lopat pitched a six-hitter as the Yankees took the series opener from the Athletics in Philadelphia. It was his 12th victory. The Yankees chased Philadelphia's three-run homer off Ray Scarborough with two out in the ninth to send the game into extra innings. Stan Spence, first Boston player to bat in the last of the tenth, blasted another home run off Scarborough to decide the game.

Home runs by Ted Williams, Bobby Doerr and Don DiMaggio, the latter with the bases loaded, helped Jack Kramer register his 14th pitching triumph for the Red Sox in the second game. He has lost four.

Major League Roundup

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

No matter what President Bill Veeck gave Satchel Paige, the great Negro hurler, to sign with the Cleveland Indians earlier this season, he would be a bargain at twice the amount.

The lanky 44-year-old, colorful righthander already has earned his keep, aside from the won and lost column. Last night's crowd of 78,382 was the largest ever to see a night game in major league history.

Paige shut out the Chicago White Sox, 1-0, for his second straight scoreless performance, and the American League-leading Indians' fourth, straight white-washing job.

Ties League Record

This tied a league record first set by the Cleveland club of 1903 equalled by the New York Yankees in 1932. The major league mark is six consecutive scoreless games, set by the 1903 Pittsburgh Pirates.

The string of shutout innings pitched by Indian hurlers reached 39, two short of the American League mark of 41 held by the 1903 tribe.

The Boston Red Sox climbed past the Philadelphia Athletics into second place by sweeping a doubleheader from the Washington Senators, 5-4 and 10-4. The Athletics were beaten by the Yankees, 6-2, to drop into third place, three and a half games off the pace, and only one length in front of the Yankees.

Paige last night permitted only three safeties, walked one and fanned five.

The Indians scored their only run off southpaw Bill Wright in the fourth inning, on singles by Manager Lou Boudreau, Ken Keltner and Larry Doby.

A crowd of 15,865 saw the Red Sox overcome a 4-1 deficit with three runs in the ninth and another tie the 10th to win the opener from Washington 5-4.

Cloutier, the Yankees' three-run homer off Ray Scarborough with two out in the ninth to send the game into extra innings. Stan Spence, first Boston player to bat in the last of the tenth, blasted another home run off Scarborough to decide the game.

Bagatelles:

Don't miss Max Patkin at the stadium tomorrow night. . . . The former Cleveland Indian baseball clown is a natural comic and contortionist. . . . Among his repertoire are such stunts as first base coaching tricks; sideline tomfoolery, priceless imitations, and various body contortions which finds him twisting his loose-jointed body like a pretzel. . . . Mr. Patkin is still a hungry young man, he has no kitchen to worry about in any restaurant and he will give you a full routine with a jitterbug dance as an added attraction, if some young lady will volunteer for the assignment.

Flotsam and Jetsam:

Poughkeepsie Chiefs and Billy Ostrom in for the last time this season over the week-end. . . . New Public Information Officer at West Point is Lt. Bill Proctor. . . . Coaches G. Warren Kias, Bill Burke and Russ Cunningham will attend the fourth annual New York State Public High School Athletic Association Coaching School at Hamilton College, Aug. 22-25. . . . Herman Hickman of Yale, Bob Higgins, Penn State will lecture on football Holy Cross' Doggy Julian and Colgate's Karl Lawrence in basketball, and members of Connie Mack's baseball school staff in the diamond sport. . . . Clayton Smith won six golf balls, Mrs. Clarence T. Voss five, Dr. Murray Greene, four, and Maurice Davenport, three in the golf ball sweepstakes of the Twaalf-Wiikwyk inter-club duel last Sunday. . . . The return battles comes next Sunday at Wiltywyk and Tommy Danaher's swingers are thirsting for revenge. . . . Ray Billows, a two-time finalist but never a champion, has qualified for the National Amateur golf tournament, and this could be the year.

NOVELETTE: William Bilyou, manager of the Union Hose softball squad, prepared an elaborate report on Union's overwhelming victory over "the floundering aggregation of Cord's Hose moushers. . . . Sir William even suggested a caption: "Union Puts Out Cord's Fire! . . . Yes, sir, it was a nice report. . . . He overlooked only one item—the SCORE!

The Babe and Modern Baseball:

In Babe Ruth's last interview before his death, published in Sport magazine, the Bambino predicted the Cleveland Indians would win the American League pennant with the Yankees and Boston Red Sox runners-up. . . . Babe was rather critical of big league baseball as played today and said trouble with it is pitching. "They just wind up and throw," said the Babe. "That isn't pitching. They're after strikeouts records, that's all. Now, we used to ease up a bit when we got ahead of the batter. We used to work on the batter on every pitch."

The Babe, who broke into baseball, as an ace southpaw, went on to say: "Young fellow, Blackwell, with Cincinnati. Burning himself out. Somebody ought to wise the kid up. Blackwell is throwing too many curves. He'll lose his fast one if he doesn't watch out. . . . Feller? I'd love to have him against him. Right down my alley. . . . Hub Pruett, of St. Louis, George Uhle of Detroit and Jack Quinn, the old spitballer. . . . His big cousin was Rube Walberg of the Athletics.

The boys were barbering at the Elks Club after the Colonials had outlasted the Stamford Pioneers, 8-4, at the K.P.A. game. . . . "Digger" Odell, who is rich newspaper copy and a "card" in the finest Virginia tradition, had the four boys gave him the most trouble. . . . "You know what I would have done if I hit a home run the night Babe died," he asked. I would have stopped at home plate, called the crowd to attention and yelled: That one was for the Babe. . . . And he would, too.

A popularity contest among the Colonial players would be a close race between Max Goldsmith and the "Digger."

Things are coming to a pretty pass when the "Old Judge" is now resorting to West Shore locomotives to get away from Eddie Tongue.

MULLIGAN MIKE SAYS: If things are as tough as the boys down South make out, Our Harry might as well take things easy and just saunter for president.

Carmel Golfer's 72 Gross Wins Rotary Tourney

Dr. G. Dickinson of Carmel, N. Y., shot low gross of 72 to pace the field in the annual Rotary golf outing Wednesday at Twaalfskill.

Dr. Dickinson carries a 4-stroke handicap at his home club. E. Theiss of Nyack was second with 75. More than 50 golfers participated in the all-day outing at which Kingston Rotary was host.

Farina's Record 97 Wins

Woodstock Open Golf

Burning up the fairways with a scorching 8-under par 97, James Farina, of the Farina golfing family of Gloversville, outclassed a field of 27 of the area's best professionals to win the annual 27-hole Woodstock Open Thursday at the Woodstock Country Club.

Farina's card resembled a duffer's dream as he exploded the most flawless exhibition ever recorded in the Woodstock tournament. The straight, driving upstater bagged eight birdies and shot even par on the other 19 holes.

Wins By Two Strokes

Farina toured the flat par-35 layout in rounds of 32, 32, 33. Two strokes behind came Milton Marusic, the Bald Eagle of Albany, with 31-36-32-99.

The 97 is a new record for the course and marks the first time any player has broken a hundred since the tournament was reduced to 27 holes.

Dick Stennard, Robert Toski and Steve Savel shared third, fourth and fifth money with 102s. Farina's first place was worth $200 in cash. Marusic earned $100, while the Cleverly C. honors were picked up $30 apiece.

Don Mangino of Schenectady and Ralph Yondo of Poughkeepsie, tied for amateur honors with 104s but in the sudden death playoff for the new set of irons, Mangino won on the first hole.

Alex Gerlak, of Twaalfskill, was wounded by a bad putter and finished out of the money with 109. Gerlak carded rounds of 35-38-36.

Walt Thiel, formerly of Twaalfskill and now with the Catskill Country Club, had 35-37-36-111. Warren Townley, the home professional, posted 114 and Charlie DeStefano, of College Hill, Poughkeepsie, shot 108.

Ties on 27th Green

Mangino shot 33-37-34 in the amateur division and was four under par when he triple-bogied the par-5 fifth hole on the second round. Yondo had to sink a curling 6-footer on the 27th green to gain the tie.

Other top amateur scores were: Scott Woodhull Jr., of Powleton, Newburgh, 109; James MacGuinness, unattached, 109; and Mahlon Atkinson Jr., Catskill, 111.

Four Kingston amateurs—Henry, Lou and Bob Boice, and George Hughes finished out of the money. Henry Boice had 120, Lou Boice 114, Bob Boice 117.

Farina's card:

Rienzo's Homer Only Marker Off Veteran Southpaw Hurler

Now that they're back at their old tricks of reviving the "Forgotten Man," you have to go along with Morgan's Restaurant as the choice to win the 1948 City League pennant.

In case you don't remember, the "Forgotten Man" is veteran Bud Swarthout, a seasoned leftlander with the experience of many years draped around his swarthy frame.

It was Swarthout who delivered Morgan's out of the bullrashes in the 1947 Shaughnessy and in the last two outings of the current semester it has been all Swarthout.

Sahler's Win

Sahler's Park defeated Melody Farm, 14-11, in softball Thursday at Sahler's. Brannen was the winning pitcher but needed help from Doyle in the seventh. Conny was the losing hurler. B. Burr had "4 for 4" for Sahler's and Booukous a homer and triple. Bosko had four hits including a homer for Melody Farm.

Junior Baseball Activities

Athletic Field scored four runs in the sixth and then checked a seventh inning rally by St. Mary's to win a K.A.A. Peevee League contest, 5-4, at St. Mary's park.

Orr held St. Mary's to two hits and struck out 10. It was Orr's fourth straight pitching win and the 13th in a row for the Athletic Field. Hoban and Jones each had two hits for the winners, who collected eight off Armstrong.

Dewey Refuses Pardon For Lifer from Brooklyn

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 21 (AP)—Governor Dewey refused today to pardon a Brooklyn man who is serving a life sentence for the 1941 killing of a Jamaica, L. I., bartender.

Charles D. Breitler, Dewey's counsel, said an appeal on behalf of Louis Hoffner, 34, had been denied on recommendation of the State Parole Board.

Hoffner was sentenced to Clinton prison at Dannemora Jan. 17, 1947, for shooting Trifon Proestos during a tavern holdup.

The case was reopened in May, 1947, when a New York city patrolman, Bernard Arluck, and a former assistant Kings county district attorney, Harry G. Anderson, claimed they had uncovered evidence proving Hoffner's innocence.

Queens County Judge Thomas Downs, however, denied an appeal for a new trial on Dec. 12, 1947.

The Parole Board, in its recommendation, said that Hoffner's "claim of innocence is still based substantially upon the same evidence which was considered by the jury." This is not a case warranting executive intervention." The conviction was upheld by the Appellate Division June 30, 1947, and by the Court of Appeals on April 23, 1948.

Southern Support Seen Behind Move To Change Voting

Democrats Favor Popular Vote Method to Elect Presidents of the United States

Washington, Aug. 21 (AP)—Southern Democratic support appeared today for a move by Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) to put presidential elections on a popular vote basis.

Senator Sparkman (D-Ala.) and Olin D. Johnston (D-S.C.) told a reporter in separate interviews they will back in the next session of Congress a proposal to change the present system by which a state's entire Electoral College vote is cast for the candidate who tops the popular ballot test.

Lodge offered in the last session and intends to revive a proposed constitutional amendment under which each candidate would share in the electoral vote on the percentage of his Election Day total.

Thus an aspirant who lost out by only a few popular votes to his presidential opponent would get nearly half of the state's support in the Electoral College, instead of none at all.

Sparkman said he thinks southern Democrats generally will support the proposal because it would "go a long way toward doing away with minority rule in this country."

"There are some minorities in northern states who get just about anything they want out of the political parties because the parties fear they may have the balance of power in the state with a lot of electoral votes," the Alabama senator said.

He added that he believed a change such as suggested by Lodge "would have a good effect in the South."

"It would encourage both parties to campaign in the South, because if the Republicans could cut into the electoral vote there Democrats would be campaigning to keep them from it."

Johnston pointed out that the South long has felt that its influence in the Democratic party has not been in proportion to the electoral college support it has furnished.

Other Dixie lawmakers have said they think President Truman would not have pushed his civil rights program with any of the vigor he displayed if the proposed new electoral system had been in effect.

Lodge seems likely also to get strong Republican support for his revision proposal, as chairman of the party's platform drafting committee he succeeded in getting approval in that document of a proposal for a revision "which will more exactly reflect the popular vote."

But any such change must run the gauntlet of two-thirds approval by both houses of Congress and approval by three-fourths of the state legislatures.

vided police force. The Russians have served notice they will continue their raids in downtown Berlin, staged ostensibly to catch black marketeers.

May Grow Serious

The Americans said there is a growing danger the clashes may grow into serious international incidents. The Soviet-backed police chief, Paul Markgraf, already has made it clear he will recognize no sector boundaries in Berlin.

The British announced they are strengthening their military police and German police patrols at Potsdamer Platz, where the eastern and western sectors meet, because of violent disturbances during the week. There, this morning, three German press photographers were reported arrested by the Russians.

Gerhard Sindt, American newspaper photographer for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, was held briefly and then released. He said the Russians had accosted him as he was standing inside the British sector.

Some pessimism was expressed that the Russians would listen to American proposals to head off the possibility of more serious clashes.

This danger has become acute since the Russians began using their military police and soldiers to support raids by Communist-controlled German police on the borders of the U. S. and British-occupied sectors of the city.

Overstep Boundaries

American and British authorities have contended that in some of these raids against alleged black marketeers the Russians have overstepped sector boundaries. The Western Allies have several times found it necessary to dispatch their own forces to the borders to preserve order.

Thus far clashes between the occupying forces have been avoided. But an American spokesman expressed fear that if the present tension continues "something might happen that will involve more than the Germans."

Brick Handlers,

over two years' service will receive seven days with pay each year, Costa said. Under last year's contract, all workers received five days with pay. The insurance plan proposed by the union would be "100 per cent" by management representatives, he said.

It is understood that the new contract provision will apply to members of both the Brick Handlers' local and the International Union of Operating Engineers local, both of which are A. F. of L. affiliates.

Workers at all yards in this area reported for work Friday and will remain at work through the negotiations and ratification procedure, Costa said. On Thursday morning, between 400 and 500 workers at five local yards failed to report for work, but the stoppage lasted only one day. Other yards in the Hudson Valley experienced no stoppage.

The five local yards affected by the action of the members on Thursday were the Perry Brick Corporation, The Hutson Corporation, the East Kingston Brick Co., Inc., Philip Goldrick and Sons and the Star Brick Corporation.

A representative of the manufacturers today announced that the second offer was made Friday and that manufacturers and the two unions had agreed to accept the terms subject to ratification by the membership. The management spokesman did not announce the terms of the new agreement.

The Home Bureau had an education exhibit on children's clothing which had been made by the leaders in the training school classes. This exhibit attracted many people.

wounded American soldiers in Nazi prisoner of war camps with strong emphasis on German "kindness."

Also Returning Jap

Mias Gillars' return to face prosecution follows by less than a week the announcement that Eva Yaguri D'Aquino, 32-year-old Los Angeles-born Japanese-American, will be brought back from Japan shortly to answer treason charges in connection with the "Tokyo Rose" broadcasts. Mrs. D'Aquino's case will be considered by a grand jury at San Francisco.

During the past year the government tried and convicted Douglas Chandler and Robert Beat for radio broadcasts from Berlin. Both were found guilty of treason and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Extra Pound, American poet who broadcast from Radio Rome, was brought back to face similar charges. A special federal grand jury decided he was mentally unable to go through with the proceedings and he has since been confined to a sanitarium.

Po'keepsie Youth Held On Auto Theft Charge

Daniel Alfred Scott, 18, who gave his address as 39 South Clover street, Poughkeepsie, was scheduled for arraignment this afternoon before Justice of the Peace Percy Bush on a charge of grand larceny, second degree, the sheriff's office reported.

The youth was arrested at 5:20 a. m. today by Patrolmen George Bowers and Edward Leonard of this city, who charged he was the driver of a stolen automobile which was found on the sidewalk near the Ashdown gasoline station at 1 Boulevard.

Bowers and Leonard were sent to that location after some one telephoned police headquarters that the car had just run up on the sidewalk and when he went to offer assistance "a very young, small man got out of the car and ran up the Boulevard." Scott was arrested and charged with the theft of the car shortly afterward when investigation disclosed the automobile had been reported stolen from Margaret A. Thomas of R.F.D. 1, Kingston. Since the theft allegedly occurred outside the city, Scott was turned over to the sheriff's office, the police reported.

Sheriff Is Pleased By Scouts' Help In Finding Body

August 19, 1948.

Mr. Myron D. Keefe, Scout Executive, B.S.A., 260 Fair Street, Kingston, New York

Dear Mr. Keefe:

This letter is written in appreciation of the invaluable services rendered so unselfishly by yourself and the many Scouts on Saturday, August 14.

The father of Frank Faulk, deceased, and neighbors appealed to me on the evening of August 13 to assist in locating the missing person. It is not easy to recruit a number of men at this time of year and may I say that I was more than happy to see the response to my request for aid from your organization.

The boys and their leaders did a thorough job and it is my wish that each member could receive my thanks through your office. May I also bring to your attention a boy by name of Dwyer who responded by reporting to my office on the morning of the 14th.

I am sure that the father of the deceased also joins me in this letter of appreciation.

Sincerely yours,
GEORGE C. SMITH,
Sheriff, Ulster County, N. Y.

ing and her irreverence toward much of royalty's pomp.

Loves Modern Dances

Margaret loves to dance and has been known to do so until four in the morning. She goes for modern dance music in a big way. She likes the theatre and the movies and is partial to down-to-earth comedy on the radio.

The young princess "doesn't" smoke. She drinks only a little champagne now and then. She can cook, make beds, shop and handle household gadgets if need be.

Many consider the fact better than an incident during the royal family's tour of South Africa in 1947. Margaret and Elizabeth were standing in a cool garden during a farewell dance party tendered the visiting royalty. Elizabeth, after a while, turned to her sister and said:

"We'd better be getting back now."

Margaret replied promptly: "You go back and look after your empire. I'll take care of myself."

does not by its terms preclude the submission of local questions by referendum to the voters at a general election in an even numbered year. However, because of the implicit basic constitutional policy of the State of New York, of segregating local elections from the state and national elections held in even numbered years, then courts have construed this language of the Constitution as forbidding the submission of local questions in a referendum to the voters of a municipality in an even numbered year. See: Mills v. Sweney, 219 N. Y. 213 (1916) at pages 218 and 219, wherein a referendum in an even numbered year was declared illegal and reference made to the fact that in that year, just as in 1948, presidential elections were to be chosen. The dictum of the Court of Appeals in this case has been fortified by direct holdings in People ex rel Casler v. Eysman, 126 Misc. 853 (Sup. Ct. Herkimer County 1926), and Ryeport v. City of Binghamton, 138 Misc. 257, (Sup. Ct., Broome County 1930).

It is my opinion that the enactment of a new charter at the general election held on November 2, 1948 would be of doubtful legality and therefore recommend that the matter be not submitted to the voters at that time.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES G. CONNOLLY,
Corporation Counsel.

Kills His Wife, Shoots Himself

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—While stunned passerby watched, a 50-year-old man shot and killed his estranged wife on a Brooklyn street yesterday, then fatally shot himself.

Police identified the dead as Mrs. Maria Uriarte, 50, and her husband, Angelo.

A witness told police Mrs. Uriarte was walking along a street near her home, when the husband approached from behind and called "Maria."

As the woman turned, police said, the husband shot twice, both bullets striking the woman in the chest. He then put the gun to his right temple, and fired.

Police said there were notes in the husband's pocket written in Spanish, and saying that if he could not get his wife to return to him, he would prefer she were dead.

The couple, who came here in 1940 from Spain, had been separated about a year and a half, police said.

Armed Bandits Escape With $9,900 Pay Roll

New York, Aug. 21 (AP)—Two men, armed with pistols, escaped with a $9,900 payroll yesterday from the Bursar's office of Teachers College, Columbia University.

The holdup was over so quickly—in about 30 seconds—that many employees in the office did not learn what had happened until later.

The two men, both bareheaded, strode into the office two minutes after an armored car had delivered the payroll.

While one of the bandits stood near the office entrance, the other covered a cashier with his gun, scooped up the payroll piled on the cashier's desk and stuffed it in a bag. The two then fled.

The university denied early reports that the robbers had overlooked a pouch containing $22,000. All that the bandits missed, said the college, was approximately $100 in "petty cash."

But the 52-year-old Russian teacher told New York police after her leap that instead of being "rescued" by Lomakin she had been held a prisoner in the Soviet consulate.

Canada is the most important platinum-producing country in the world, with Russia ranking second in this respect.
